THE CITY OF WASHINGTON — Everybody has a neighbor who, God and the people willing —and sometimes I have thought, "whether or not," — means to go to Washington before he goes to Canaan Albeit it is farther off from Heaven than it is from Richmond by Sabbath days' journeys unnumbered, and there are several lions in the way, yet to that multitudinous neighbor, the catechism is not Delphic "the chief end of man' is Washington Traitors have come up hither men with poor brains and little of them, with hearts empty and dusty as the tombs of the prophets leaders who have tramped along the organs of reverence of more than half the nation straight into place and power, as if some McAdam had paved the heads of the people into a highway for them to walk on, human oysters with nothing outside the miserable shell they dwell in the purest of patriots the grandest of statesmen. And take the long procession through, that for more than half century has been moving to the Federal City from the whole broad continent, and you can temper with the poet's line and paint it all

"The greatest, wisest, meanest of mankind"

The above comprehensive glance at our National Capital, by B. F. Taylor, correspondent of the Chicago Journal, we commend to the perusal of our Legislators They are about to make an addition to the "numbers who go up to Washington," and it behooves them, in view of the exigencies of the times, to con the poet's appropriate line, and avoid an error which may rank them, through their sworn representative, among those whose condition is expressed by the three last words We believe Oregon has men possessed of all the qualifications of statesmen in the present crisis There are men whose loyalty is undoubted, whose intelligence, discretion and experience are sufficient whose moral characters are a guarantee of their fidelity, and whose election would be a credit to the Legislature and the State. We have no suggestions to make in favor of any particular candidate We want the best man We trust the Legislature will not so far forget the respect due itself as to elect to the highest position in the gift of the State, any man who could, either by his own wilfulness or through the unholy influences with which the enemies of our country will endeavor to surround him, violate his instructions or misrepresent the sacred interests and honor entrusted to his keeping If they find any aspirant for Senatorial honors who ignores his allegiance to the particular issues upon which the election is based, or who would by his subsequent action virtually deny the right of a constituency to instruct, pass him as an unsafe representative—unworthy the confidence of the people or the honors of an election To this Legislature will attach the credit of electing a Senator alive to the duties and wants of the times, or the lasting disgrace of having been satisfied with no especial claim to a nation's respect and gratitude

RAILROAD MEETING AT HILLSBORO —Quite an enthusiastic and largely attended meeting was holden in the Court House at Hillsboro on Monday last, to initiate measures for the furtherance of the projected railroad through Willamette valley. Col Cornelius, Col Barry, Mr Hare, and others delivered addresses upon the subject, and delegates were appointed to attend the Railroad Convention to be holden at Salem the latter part of September

The establishment of a postal route from Great Salt Lake City via Boise City, this place, Centreville, and Placerville in this county, to Walla Walla, and the opening of the mail communication connecting with the net work of mail routes intersecting Uncle Samuel's domain like the meshes of a fishing seine in every direction, affords for the first time an opportunity to the Democracy of the mountain fastnesses of Idaho to hear and be heard, read and be read, and to take with their political brethren elsewhere a position shoulder to shoulder in the common cause for the common good, instead of continuing in the isolated condition in which they have hitherto lingered since the first organization of the Territory —Boise Cor Eugene Review

To whom does this Copperhead render thanks for the facilities thus afforded, as he claims, to more widely disseminate treason? He does not suggest that these mail facilities were generously granted by an Administration holding a place in his esteem second to that of Jeff Davis This elegant correspondent does not say that he will repay the expense to Government by continued efforts at its overthrow, but he will do it or the sheet in which his article appears belies him wofully

THE RAILROAD SURVEY —Col Barry arrived in the city last evening, having completed the survey of the Oregon Railroad Line, from the California State line to St. Helens He has also surveyed a route from the city of Portland up the Willamette Valley to intersect with the first named line in Polk county. All that remains now to be done before the matter is brought to the notice and knowledge of the people at large, is to complete the profile, maps and estimates, which will be done as speedily as possible by Mr Curley, a gentleman apparently well qualified for the task

A LEGISLATIVE "BOUNTY" WANTED —We are requested by a gentleman from Yamhill county to call the attention of the incoming legislature to the advantage which would accrue to the farmers in many sections of the State by the passage of a bill offering a bounty for squirrels They are represented as very annoying in some localities their devastations being almost equal to a total prohibition of grain growing

Twenty three out of twenty eight commissioned officers of the 16th Kentucky regiment, now in Georgia, have signed a series of resolutions warmly endorsing the policy of the administration, and repudiating all comprehends, in and out of the army.

THE New Nation, the Fremont organ, proposes to offer the Olive Branch to the South That will be done, doubtless, as soon as they are qualified to receive it. Sherman is rapidly paving the way to its introduction into Georgia

WHAT THE "CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRATS" WANT The Democratic party of the United States want peace They do not propose to punish the perpetrators of the rebellion, but they want peace They want those who are to-day leaders of the rebel forces in arms to return to their old posts of honor and trust in the Government of the Union While they acknowledge that slavery was the cause of the war, they want the institution preserved. The Northern copperheads want the chivalrous gentleman who owns five hundred slaves to have just as much influence in the halls of national legislation as three hundred of themselves or of the "poor white trash" of the North They have no propositions of indemnification for losses either on sea or land to offer the rebels They want peace They do not openly avow it, for fear of the consequence to their party, but they want the privilege of repudiating greenbacks, and becoming responsible for the payment of the unending war debt contracted by the Government of their dear friend Jefferson Davis They desire to say of the rebels as the old patriarch did of the prodigal son They want to take the mutilated portion of Northern patrimony, and offer it for the benefit of the rebel monsters The following description of what was recently done in the free State of Pennsylvania, correctly portrays the "dear outraged brethren" whom the Chicago Convention Democracy desire to hug to their bosoms, and to whom they would again yield up the reins of the General Government The New York Herald's Chambersburg, Pa, correspondent says of the late raid

Into one house where the rebels went for the purpose of firing it, lay the dead body of a woman in a coffin, being watched by a few friends and her husband The rebels insisted on instantly firing the house, and the officer who conducted operations was at one time going to fire the house with the dead body in it After some parleying, he was prevailed upon to let the deceased be buried The husband, with the help of one rebel private, conveyed the corpse to the backyard and proceeded to dig a hole to put the coffin in They hardly had time to dig down a short distance, before they were compelled, in consequence of the heat of the burning building (for the rebels fired the house as soon as the corpse was removed,) to place the coffin in the shallow hole, and before the could cover it entirely up the heat drove them away, and the coffin and corpse were left in this condition

THE REASON WHY NAPOLEON WANTS TEXAS — Who that understands the history of Texas, from the day that the first cotton seeds were planted there, but knows that the Third Napoleon, by his invasion of Mexico, means anything but the conquest and control of Mexico—he cares nothing for Mexico only as the means of controlling Texas and keeping his finger on Texas cotton. The writer saw the first bale of Texas cotton packed, and for years watched the French agents and French houses always on hand to buy the best portion of that silky fiber, and so absolutely necessary has it become to France and her silk manufacturers, that Louis Napoleon hopes to offer terms to Texas that will enable her (taking advantage of this rebellion) to declare her independence and give him an ample supply of the silky staple of that region He no more wants Mexico than a coach wants its fifth wheel, only as it will give him power there to support Texas and keep up his supply of Texas cotton So important has this cotton become to France that he must have it or the silk manufactures of France will languish Any person conversant with the manufactures of that country knows that from one third to two-thirds of the stock of French silk fabrics is composed of Texas cotton There is no doubt that since the battle of San Jacinto France has pocketed at least one hundred millions of dollars for Texas cotton which she has sold for silk Under this statement of facts can any one doubt that it is Texas cotton that Louis Napoleon is after? A dealer in French silks here tells me that he has had ostensible French silks that were two-thirds cotton, while the poorest you can now find here is one third cotton Does it not behoove our Government to look to this, and see that Louis Napoleon, through Maximilian, does not draw all Europe to support his power in Mexico? Already it is announced he has appointed Minister plenipotentiary to the Government of Russia, Sweden and Denmark, another to the courts of Italy and Switzerland—a gentleman who was for many years Secretary of the Mexican Legation at Washington, also, one to London and Belgium, one to Paris, one to Austria and Germany, one to Spain and one to Rome In all probability all these Ministers will be accepted by the Sovereigns and Powers to whom they are accredited What an influence and power this will be getting on our continent by nearly all Europe! which our Government ought not to permit Thank God we are swelling a navy with a rapidity that will soon enable us to put both England and France subject to our naval power This whole movement is French play, and we must take time by the forelop and checkmate her in the game —Correspondent of the N Y. Evening Post

ARREST OF A MURDERER —We are informed by Senator Pyle, of Baker county, that Bill Smith, who killed Major Blythe and a man named Van about a month since, near La Grande, arrived at Auburn in charge of an officer who arrested him at Pioneer City, Idaho Territory It appears that Maj Blythe left, San Jose, California, where he resided, about two months since, to look after his sheep interests in this State He was shot through the body three times—once with a United States rifle, and twice with a pistol. Van was shot through the head. It was supposed they were murdered for their money, as the Major had recently sold a large number of sheep. Smith succeeded in making his escape Suspicion rests upon some parties in the vicinity of the murder as accomplices Smith sold to these parties the next morning after committing the bloody act, some $2,000 worth of sheep, giving a bill of sale therefor

FROM WALLA WALLA —The stages are now making tri weekly trips between Walla Walla and Lewiston The first trip on the new line was made on Monday last

During the month of August about 4 000 acres of the public lands in the counties of Walla Walla and Clarke, W T., were disposed of

The Statesman of September 2d says

We were yesterday shown, by Mr H P Isaacs a fine specimen of the tobacco plant, grown in Colville valley One of the leaves of the plant measured 3½ feet in length and 14 inches in width

Mr Charle Toelner has a duck that has laid 176 eggs the past season She commenced sometime in February and continued "laying on" every day with two or three exceptions until the 22d of August

The Congressional Delegate from the Territory of Idaho has tendered a Cadet's appointment to the Military Academy at West Point to Master Harry Leland, son of Alonzo Leland of Florence, formerly editor of the Portland Times

The postoffices at Burkeville and Oro Fino, in Idaho Territory have been discontinued

MINT —We understand Mr McBride says one reason he advocated the establishment of the Mint at the Dalles, was that he could get no reliable data from the citizens of Portland, and yet he quotes from the OREGONIAN of November 1863, that the three Assay Offices of Portland in about nine months assayed $2,486,496 65 In the progress of his speech he says, "when we recollect that there is another assay office at Dalles City from which we have no return, &c." It appears strange that Mr McBride should advocate the Dalles with their reliable data before him

ON Sunday evening, between 7 and 8 o'clock, a dam attached to the water works at the Dalles, gave way, and for a time the whole of the lower part of the town was in danger of being flooded out. Fortunately the break in the dam was slight, and as a result the damage was confined to filling cellars and flooding the streets

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE SACRAMENTO RIVER.

The Steamer Washoe Blown Up.

150 Persons Killed and Wounded.

SACRAMENTO Sept 6—1 00 P M The steamer Washoe on her way from San Francisco to Sacramento exploded her boiler about half past nine o'clock last night, while at the bend 4 miles at Sought all at 10 miles below Sacramento She had on board, I feel passengers a large number being females, only about ten of whom are saved Capt Kidd and most of the officers of the boat are unharmed The Washoe will never be a complete wreck Rumors are conflicting as to the number of killed and wounded From a passenger H G Smith of this city I learn that there were but 100 persons on board a majority of whom are either killed or wounded The California Steam Navigation Company's steamer Chrysopolis was a long way ahead and knew nothing of the disaster The Antelope being behind came up and took off the wounded and a large number of dead and brought the first news of this sad affair to this city On her arrival at half past five o'clock, the alarm bells were rung and the Howard Association turned out to attend the wreck The steamers Martha and Cleopatra at once got up steam and proceeded down to the wreck The Antelope grounded on the bar at the foot of R street and I have not been able to get on board Besides the one found dead a number are supposed to have been drowned, as the Washoe careened over and sunk her stern under water

LATER —Since the previous dispatch I have escaped Dr Frey, who has just come from the Antelope He reports a few dead on board and 60 cases of severe injuries Of these at least 30 will die they having inhaled steam From what I could learn he estimates that about 150 persons have been wounded or killed of whom about 50 are dead or will die

From the passengers I learn that only two women escaped injury, the most of them being in the lower saloon aft and retired for the night The upper works of the boat aft are said to have been completely shattered, some portions of it with the state rooms, being blown overboard Most of the crew are reported unhurt and remain on the wreck The Antelope brought only the wounded to this city A large number of the slightly wounded who could walk or ride have come ashore and have been taken to the rooms of the Howard Association Among the dead is Father Cullen of Forrest Hill In the present confusion it is impossible to learn the names of the sufferers The badly injured are still on board the Antelope which is yet aground in the river The explosion is reported to have taken place at 10 o'clock, at a point just above the hog's back, about ten miles above Rio Vista

SACRAMENTO Sept 6, 2 30 P M —At half past 1 o'clock this morning the fire bells of the city were rung and our citizens were at once led to learn that a dreadful catastrophe had occurred during the night, attended by terrible destruction of life and limb The steamer Antelope arrived at the foot of R street at half past four o'clock A M and brings information that one of the boilers of the steamer Washoe had exploded at half past nine o'clock last night on the trip up from San Francisco the boat having on board at the time from 150 to 200 passengers The explosion took place at the mouth of a slough some 30 miles below Sacramento and five miles above Rio Vista The Chrysopolis passed the Washoe, and was at the time some four miles ahead, as nothing was known on board of the catastrophe, she of course kept on her course The Antelope, Capt Foster, having started from San Francisco at a later hour, arrived an hour and a half or two hours after the explosion occurred and extended to the sufferers all the aid possible All passengers, injured or uninjured that could be found were brought to this city When the Antelope reached the foot of R street, she ran aground and remained some two hours before boats could tow her off The scene on board was such as is rarely witnessed on the Pacific coast The floor of the cabin and a portion of the deck was covered with dead and wounded The mattresses and bedding of the boat had been brought into requisition, and some 40 sufferers were stretched out, some of them enduring great pain, and others were too badly injured to be conscious of their condition The most of the physicians of the city had been sent for, who promptly responded rendering all the aid within their power Among the seriously injured were three women, two of them sisters, who died after being placed on board The other a Mrs McGee, had a leg broken The other sufferers were men, who had but a few hours before been stricken down in the full and vigorous enjoyment of health. They were almost without exception badly scalded about the head, face and hands and many of them about the breast and body A large number of citizens visited the levee while the boat remained at the foot of the street, many of them searching anxiously for relations and friends About half past nine the Antelope was hauled off and towed up to the landing By that time nearly a thousand persons had assembled on the levee, and an impromptu Sanitary Commission was immediately organized The Vernon House, on J street has been engaged and opened as a hospital Stretchers were hastily constructed and cots were forced into requisition, on which the victims of the disaster were conveyed to Vernon by volunteer citizens, who manifested a laudable desire to do every thing that humanity dictated Several deaths occurred after the boat landed Of the forty more badly injured, three fourths will die It is impossible to tell, as we write how many lives have been lost but it seems that at least 75 have been killed or fatally injured We learn from H H Stephens chief clerk, that there were 103 passengers on board on leaving San Francisco and several others came on board at Benicia and Rio Vista The Antelope brought about 80, leaving some five or six dead bodies and three or four injured persons in the locality of the wreck The number blown overboard killed and remaining in the lower cabin cannot, of course, be a present ascertained The passenger list was lost Passengers who escaped describe the scene at the time as heartrending in the extreme. The lights were extinguished by the shock The report of the boiler was followed by the crashing of the fragments of the boat and the groans and cries of the wounded Some called for one thing and some for another, some asked for light, some for water some to be thrown overboard others jumped overboard some who were disabled to get ashore did so and ran in vain in search of relief It is said that Capt Kidd and his uninjured officers were prompt in extending relief but of course had but few facilities at hand When the Antelope arrived, Capt Foster Van Pelt chief clerk, and all the officers and crew exerted themselves to the utmost to relieve and give comfort to the suffering Below we give as far as practicable a list of the dead and injured

Statement of H H Stevens Card —I had just laid down in my berth about 15 minutes of 10 o'clock in the outside starboard forward stateroom my first impression was the burst or whiz of steam, sounding like tearing something I immediately shut my mouth and putting my hand over my nose rushed for the door which was bursted off the hinges and went over to the starboard quarter of the boat I think it was one of the boat's boiler that exploded I think the aft head of the boiler went first and threw the fire forward, as the boat was on fire in three places immediately after the explosion The explosion was up and aft The steering gear was rigged but she took a sheer and having headway enough ran ashore The Antelope arrived 2 hours after the explosion Capt Kidd was on the pilot house with Baldwin and Easton The pilots all escaped unhurt Robert Morrison, the mate was asleep was blown out and fell through the deck but escaped uninjured A fireman brought a sack of flour and a bottle of oil and did everything he could to alleviate the sufferers

The following is the list of killed and injured so far as known

FROM IDAHO —We glean the following items from the Idaho Statesman of the 1st September

Judge Parks has been nominated for Congress by the Conservative county field at Placer Jo ies

The resignation of Dr C C Tuley surgeon at Fort Boise has we understand been tendered and accepted.

A courier night writing from Idaho City says that at midnight of the 25th August John Conway a peaceable and inoffensive citizen was shot and killed by one James Fitzgibbon, who was arrested

Col Maury sent a detachment of 25 cavalry and an equal number of infantry on Tuesday last from command of Lieut H Curtis to Fort Hall with orders to escort the contractors with instructions from that place for Bonville Indians The expedition is composed of able resolute men well equipped who will do good service if they have occasion

Boise valley was again visited with a heavy rain on Tuesday which caused a rise in the mountains and up the valley and for a distance Travelers from Owyhee report that Snake river had risen a foot at the ferry yesterday morning Some damage was done to farms in the gulch and ravines which run out of the mountains The water came down these in torrents rising five and six feet in the space of ten or fifteen minutes Mr Ford living about two miles from town suffers a loss of five or six hundred dollars in garden vegetables washed away

AS A SPRING REMEDY to purify and cleanse the Blood leaving it free from all humors and impurities, we assert with

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the surest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of afflictions. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overpins of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures

WASHINGTON TERRITORY TRANSPORTATION COMPANY.—The arrival of the steamer Cascades from Umatilla, with the timber and machinery for two other new boats to be put in operation above the Cascades, and the Dalles establishes the fact that a movement has been made to concentrate more capital, and continue improvements for the benefit of that part of the country, calling into requisition a vast amount of money perhaps that will be invested in the principal enrichment of our sister Washington Territory. The new Transportation Company, as we understand is decidedly an opposition company so far as the route of their line is taken up, that is they lay no claims to the Oregon side of the river, and will consequently run opposite the long established line of the O S N Company. This is about all the opposition the new Company are expected to make, and we are glad of it—for all opposition in steamboat matters are more productive of better and good, and most invariably, in the long run, turn out to be impositions upon the community, if not worse. Witness the dispatches this morning, giving the results of the recent opposition on the Sacramento, as showing the fearful consequences by loss of life, and to show the results of a few months of cheap fares look at the increase of prices between New York and San Francisco, as brought about by a recent 'combination' of the opposition lines. The fares of to day must make up for past deficits. We are friendly to all new enterprises that have a tendency to build up our country, and will encourage, all that is in our province to do, the incorporation and consolidation of any company of men who see fit to come among us and invest their money, as their spirit shows a confidence in the progress and development of the country, and a determination to assist us in building it up. The new Transportation Company are possessed of an abundance of means, and to all appearance they have commenced a most judicious expenditure of it, by the construction of almost substantial and reliable character of boats, which can be run with little expense, comparative to larger crafts. This is as it should be—they have extensive works to construct, railroads to build etc., calling for large amounts, before anything really is made and the expenses in carrying on the transportation should be taken greatly into account. Things are not now as they used to be, and prices on the Columbia river, for freight and travel, have greatly diminished, rendering economy absolutely essential to the successful navigation of that river. At the time the Oregon Steam Navigation Company was incorporated there were two lines running on the Columbia, and freight from Portland to the Dalles (what was considered cheap rates, was $40 to $45 per ton and it is said the "measurement" on some of those tons was decidedly "stoop." Since that time through the efforts of this Company, a great reform has taken place, both in regard to the trade of the upper Columbia, and the modes of conveying it, and prices have gradually worked down to a nominal sum, without a prospect of their ever increasing. We are not disposed to pick flaws with the O S N Company. That they have monopolized the trade for some years is undisputed, but we think their arrogance has come back to us every time in the shape of increased comforts, until, in lieu of a coy old horse and wood canoe, in making the passage from the up to the very mountains and beyond, we have steamers and snorting railroad engines to bear the progress of this country is onward! We say with satisfaction all who come to assist it, and everybody may do well. Let nothing interpose to stay or retard our prosperity.

WHAT ECONOMY IN WATER POWER.—The best piece of machinery that we have ever seen, for furnishing power to drive quartz mills, saw mills or for gearing, in a country nearly destitute of water, is Jonhs Double turbine water wheel, which is so arranged that it gives double the power of any other wheel of the same size. Samples of them are to be seen at Couch's wharf. A wheel of ten inches in diameter is capable of furnishing the same power as a ten horse engine, and with the same proportion of water a wheel forty inches in diameter will furnish the power. The great velocity of the wheel is a peculiar advantage. Several of them have already been purchased for saw and flouring mills in the vicinity, and we expect arrangements will be made to Portland before many months for their manufacture.

AMUSEMENTS.—Willamette Theatre was again well filled last evening, to witness the performances of Hussy's Variety Troupe." The feats of posturing by Mr Morgan and Master Frank, excite universal admiration, for the agility of the boy and the strength of Mr Morgan. The entire company accomplish their parts in fine style. The fancy dance of the female champion jig, by Mrs. Morgan, has the power to draw crowds, every night, and her graceful manner is making many friends for her in Portland as much so as has any female artiste that ever visited these boards. They play again to night.

A NEW DISCOVERY.—The San Francisco Bulletin has discovered something interesting to the citizens of that place, and advocates the opening of a new port in Oregon at Yaquina Bay the establishment of a line of ships and steamers there, etc. The statements of the writer are based upon an item observed in the OREGONIAN a few weeks since, noticing the fitting up of the steamer Pioneer, when she was taken to the Bay to run as a packet connecting with the Corvallis wagon road. We presume the idea of a would have the steamships run in connection with the Pioneer!

RETURNED TO OREGON.—It is announced that Dan W. P Boyakin, an old pioneer settler in this country, who some years since returned to his early home in Illinois, has returned to Oregon overland, with a view to settling down for life in our favored land. Mr Boyakin has been acting chaplain for the Thirteenth Illinois regiment, since the war and won the soubriquet among the men of his regiment as the "fighting parson" on account of his many feats of prowess.

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—The colored man Ty, who has long filled a position as street messenger in this city for the O S N Company, very mysteriously disappeared from his post on Monday, and has not since been heard from. His faithful habits, and unassuming way has won him much respect, and his absence is the subject of inquiry, and unaccountable.

PUBLIC MEETING.—There will be a public meeting of the citizens of this city, at the Council Chamber this evening, for the purpose of devising a plan for clearing a channel at the mouth of the Willamette. A report of observations will be made to the meeting by Capt. Ankeny and Capt. Pease. It is to be hoped that everybody interested in this matter—and who is not?—will attend.

EMIGRANTS.—The steamer from the Cascades yesterday brought 126 passengers, nine wagons and 70 head of stock. A large number of those coming were emigrants from the States of Ohio, Illinois and Iowa. They report having met with no difficulty from the Indians, although severely threatened at various places.

TRIAL OF PROTECTION ENGINE No 4.—This fine engine was put upon trial last evening under the direction of Chief Engineer Buchtel, and gave perfect satisfaction. The machine has been entirely overhauled, valves newly ground, etc and to all appearance is now in as good trim as when new.

AN ICE HOUSE.—J M Geo Kalloch has commenced the erection of an ice house on Taylor street between Front and First 34 feet square, capable of holding from 800 to 1,000 tons of ice. Mr K has been in the ice business before, and seems to be thoroughly posted in regard to it.

ARRIVALS.—Among the arrivals at Arrigoni's last evening, we observe the name of Medical Inspector Keeny, U. S. A from Gen McDowell's staff. Hon. John R. McBride, Lafayette, Wm K Ish, Yakima.

GEN McDOWELL.—Gen McDowell returned yesterday by the steamer Wilson G Hunt to Fort Vancouver, from an extended trip to the upper Columbia country.

MEETING OF DELEGATES.—The Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department will meet on Monday evening next, at 7½ o'clock, being the second Monday of September. The time of meeting was erroneously stated in the notice for Monday last.

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the summer season the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane, it places this surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "slight cold" in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.
REDINGTON & Co, San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is unequaled as an invigorator. In the pursuit of fortune at the mines many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitter and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers generally. jy26dlaw

Periodical Headache—so common in uncleared and marshy countries, Tic Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of ague in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhœa, are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause. For such, Dr Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of these affections, it applies with equal certainty, as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms.
Imitations are abroad! Be particular to enquire for Dr Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.

SUCCESSORS TO
LADD, RE

PROGRESS OF THE PRESS.—We give below a graphic view of the progress of the newspaper art in the career of the London Times. It is worth perusal:

Great strides have been made in the art of printing. The first metal types ever cast in England were those of Caxton, in 1720. Stereotype printing had been first suggested in Edinburg in 1735, and was perfected and brought into general use by Tillock in 1779. The printing machine had been originated by Nicholson, in 1790, and an improved form of it, made of iron, the invention of Earl Stanhope, was in general use in 1806. Thomas Martyn, a compositor of the Times, invented some further modifications, and was aided by the younger Walter. Owing, however, to the violent opposition of his fellow workmen, the experiments were carried on under the greatest secrecy; but the elder Walter could not be induced to countenance them, and consequently nothing came of them. In 1814, Koenig and Baur, two German printers, conceived the idea of printing by steam, and the younger Walter, now by his father's death permitted to do as he liked, entered warmly into their project. The greatest silence and mystery was observed, but the employees of the Times somehow or other obtained an inkling of what was going on, and foreseeing a reduction in their numbers, vowed the most terrible vengeance upon everybody connected with the new-fangled invention. Spite of their threats, however, the necessary machinery was quietly prepared and erected, and one morning, before day had broken, Walter called all of his printers together and informed them that the issue of that day was struck off by steam. This ever memorable day in the history of journalism was Monday, the 29th November, 1814. Loud murmurs and threats were heard among the workmen, and burning down the whole affair was the least thing suggested; but Walter had taken precautions, and, showing his workpeople that he was prepared to meet any outbreak on their part, no violence was attempted. Since then the Times has been printed by steam. Various improvements in steam machinery have from time to time been patented, and Hoe's gigantic machines—the production of that country, the most prolific of all the world in useful inventions, America—seemed to show that the limit of the application of steam to printing had been reached. But machines still more wonderful—a machine that possessed all the skill of human intelligence and ten times the quickness of human fingers—a machine for composing by steam, was shown at the International Exhibition in London, in 1862. Printing by steam at once raised the circulation of the Times enormously, as was but natural, from the facilities which it afforded of a rapid multiplication of copies; and under the editorship of Thomas Barnes it soon reached the first place in journalism. But Walter himself was not idle, and was always on the lookout for fresh and rising talent. On one occasion, being at a church in the neighborhood of his country seat in Berkshire, he was very much struck by the sermon which was preached by a new curate. After the service he went into the vestry and had a long conversation with the preacher, the result of which was that he told him that a curacy was not a very enviable position, and that he would do much better to go to London and write for the Times at a salary of £1,000 a year. It is needless to add that the offer was not declined.

A PORTRAIT.—John Cessna, of Bedford (Pa.) long and widely known as a leading Democrat, in a recent speech described a kind of people whom he had known in Southern Pennsylvania:

There are unfortunately those among us who cannot discuss the question a single moment without showing that they are at heart foes of the Government and enemies of their race. The people soon learn to find out and know these men. Human skill and ingenuity and all of a traitor's cunning cannot long succeed in concealing their real sentiments. They hang back or skulk away from our public gathering on our national holiday; they disparage Union officers and eulogize the rebels. All Union victories are insignificant—of little account; rebel victories are of incalculable value and importance. Good news is never credited—bad news often originated, believed and circulated long before verified. Taxes are obnoxious and oppressive; drafts are unconstitutional and odious; war is bloody and desolating and the nation ought at once to stop it. For nearly four years everything has been wrong; nothing excellent, nothing even praiseworthy or passable has ever been done by their own Government—only mistakes, wrongs, wicked acts of tyranny, and earnest appeals are made to the people to arise in their might and prevent the establishment of a military despotism. During all this time they have never been known to utter a word of denunciation against the rebellion, or see an improper act south of the rebel lines. These are the unmistakable ear-marks of the traitor. He may remonstrate; he may write down beneath the picture in large letters the word "patriot;" he may, in very noisy and earnest words, insist that he is a 'sound Democrat,' and that every man of his party who sustains the war is an "Abolitionist;" yet after all, he is neither a patriot nor a good Democrat. You may turn him upside down and inside out, and cleanse and wash him with all the pure waters of America, and you can make nothing out of him but a poor, miserable traitor—just such a one as General Jackson would have strung up for treason in his day, and looked for the authority afterward.

THE DESOLATIONS OF WAR.—A correspondent of the Nashville Union, who has explored the region passed over by Sherman's army, says:

From Chattanooga to Marietta there is presented to the eye one vast sheet of misery. The fugitives from ruined villages or deserted fields seek shelter in the mountains. Cities sacked, towns burnt, population, decimated, are so many evidences of the fearful guilt that rests upon the chiefs of this most wicked and causeless rebellion; all along the roads are great wheat fields in which no sickle will enter; crops sufficient to feed all New England are to be lost for want of laborers. The owners have been driven into the rebel army by a merciless conscription, and the blacks have been sent further south. I saw enough of this country to get a most vivid and painful impression of the horrors of war. "This is a beautiful country," exclaimed a friend, as his eyes for the first time looked upon the gentle undulations of the valleys, terminating in the windings of the rivers, flanked by the majestic barriers of the mountains. The entire country, in almost every mod of it, is a battlefield; trodden over by both armies. In every town the more public buildings and the more conspicuous residences have been devoured by fire, or riddled with shot and shell. Used as headquarters, or for rebel commissary stores, or occupied by prominent secesh, such buildings have become singled out for destruction. In some instances churches have not escaped. They have been stripped for firewood or converted into barracks and hospitals. In the towns one is struck with the absence of young men and men in middle life. Fences are demolished, and here and there a lordly mansion stands an unsightly ruin.

POLITICAL.—A Democratic Congressman was bewailing, a day or two ago, the prospect of hard work ahead, in the political campaign, and, speaking to Ben. Wade, remarked that stump-speaking was dreadful hard labor. "So it is," said Mr. Wade, "but there won't be much use in it this time. Out in Ohio, we're going to take it easy. We'll just let Old Abe run himself. There's no use in saying anything for or against him. The people have elected him already, and saved us a great deal of trouble. If you don't want to embark in a very fruitless business, you Democrats had better stay at home next November and save your powder for some other time."—Buffalo Express.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1859, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands on the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

REDSBURG, Wis., Sept. 16, 1864.

"* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *
C. A. PLAUTE."

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.

"* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

"DR DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you; for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.

Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the ghouls of our home.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

"* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. S. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Callisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—I.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.
